I agree that before taking this exam on-line I have informed IDMA that I have access to a secure workstation in a quiet room and have a proctor for the exam date.

B- Proctor Information: Students are responsible to provide the name, title, mailing address (physical and PO), e-mail address, phone and fax number for the person who will proctor their exam. A proctor could be anyone from your HR department, your boss, or staffer. A week prior to the exam, IDMA will provide the proctor with a "proctor package" explaining the exam process.

C- Exam Information: Exams are given online only, consist of one hundred (100) multiple-choice questions, and are three hours long. Scores are issued immediately after the exam completion. Students are allowed to take more than one exam during an exam window if they elect to do so. Students also have the option to choose the start time of the examination as long as there is a proctor available in the room.

IMPORTANT: Please coordinate with your proctor the date and start time of your examination.
