IDMA's 25th Anniversary Celebration &

2009 Annual Seminar

Insurance Business Intelligence - How Smart Are You?

April 6-7, 2009, The Westin Philadelphia Hotel, Philadelphia

Nearly every insurance organization has in some way started down the path to provide the business with information using the data they collect; some are using external data as well. It is a journey that companies recognize they need to travel to ensure continued viability in the marketplace into the future. Data Management coupled with technology enablers are significant success factors.

Join us at the IDMA 2009 Annual Seminar to celebrate IDMA's 25th Anniversary, to measure the value gained, and to assess the challenges the insurance industry has experienced in the transformation of data from Internal Management Reporting and Bureau Reporting to Business Intelligence. The 2009 Seminar will bring together the best practices and best practitioners in data management principles, processes and tools. Attendees will have the opportunity to share with data management professionals the lessons and learnings in Insurance Business Intelligence, be introduced to some exciting new technologies and data management techniques, strengthen their basic data management skills, and network with their peers.

Our 2009 Seminar will take place at The Westin Philadelphia Hotel on April 6-7. This hotel is situated in the heart of a city rich with history, just steps from upscale shopping, award winning restaurants, museums and historical attractions, including the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, and the Constitution Center.

Exhibiting Opportunities

This is an outstanding seminar and a perfect opportunity for you. 2009 Seminar sessions will draw a huge range of insurance professionals interested in data and information quality.

Both the business and the IT communities will be here. There will be data architects, systems developers, compliance directors, data managers needing to understand business drivers affecting IT, company officers catching up on the new acronyms, and more. Insurance professionals will come to this seminar wanting answers and solutions. These are your potential customers. These are the people you want to reach.

This is not a "BIG HALL" event. You can have your literature available at the registration table, at no additional cost. You are expected to attend the sessions, you can talk with participants during the refreshment breaks and at Monday's cocktail reception where you can have your table top displays, and you can follow through at the banquet and entertainment in an adjacent room. Your potential customers will not be heading off to restaurants after a drink. You will be attending the dinner and sitting with these insurance data managers during the meal, when we conduct our brief Annual Meeting. We will also offer entertainment through a local comedian and/or band after the Annual Meeting concludes.

Table-tops will go up again on Tuesday morning on tables adjacent to the continental breakfast displays. If you need a follow-up visit with a target customer you can do it on Tuesday morning. You can keep the tables there, staffing them during breaks to continue to make contacts throughout the morning.

This is a focused marketing opportunity, and inexpensive at that. Your exhibit space fee of $995 includes your participation at all events, and you may bring another staff member, for an additional lower fee of $695.

Contact Farouk Yassine with your questions and reservations as soon as possible. Exhibitor space is very limited.

Note: Sponsors and Exhibitors get a one-time use of the Attendee Mailing List for a pre and post-event mailing. Pre-event list will be available within 15 days prior to the event. Post-event list will be available within 10 days after the event. Emails are provided, while telephone numbers are not.
